College Forum for Extension & Community Work Annual Report for 2018-19

Teachers, students and ex-students of Jhargram Raj College are involved in various community works for uplifting the condition of tribal people surrounding the College at personal level since decades. Most of those deprived people are not conscious about their own right, power and ability since pre-independence of India. They used to earn livelihood by selling the wood and leaves of forest or employing themselves as seasonal labour. Their endless poverty exists even today due to lack of education and proper consciousness. This forum for extension and community work of Jhargram Raj College helped these people at personal level in a regular basis.

One of the underprivileged tribal villages, Shushnigeria which is situated about 6km far from Jhargram Raj College. In 2018-2019 session we have planned to distribute blankets and some winter garments for the villagers. Accordingly, our forum has approached with Sree Sreemat Jugalbhai Charitable Trust, Bhandarhati, Hooghly for financing the programme and they have agreed to fully finance the programme. The Secretary of this trust himself came for distributing blankets to each and every adult people (150) and winter garments to all children (72 approximately) in this village on 16th December, 2018.

This forum also collected old garments in good condition for ladies and children from some NGOs in huge quantity. All of these has been distributed in nearby villages like Baghuadam (10km), Patharnala (9km), Shushnigeria (6km) and Katabari (1km) according to their necessity.
